

John's life is on track

John was homeless, suffering from physical trauma and had no family nearby.

He needed help developing an action plan for his life, and securing doctors appointments and shelter.

According to statistics, last year during the month of January 60 people were unsheltered or chronically homeless in Siouxland.

Thanks to United Way of Siouxland funded programs, John is one of over 8,000 Siouxlanders with the resources and skills to build financial stability.*
