Giving back to your community is easy!

About the Le Mars United Way

Working with local community partners to:

- ▶ Ensure children grow into successful adults

- Provide at-risk students a structured learning environment
- Provide caring, supportive services to school age children
- Provide children a jumpstart toward academic and social success

- ▶ Safety Net Services

- Provide kids with food, books and school supplies
- Provide housing, utility and food assistance to families
- Provide skills training so people can reach their full potential

How You Can Help

- ▶ Donate by Completing Pledge Form
- ▶ $5 a Week Makes a Difference!
 - Gives 70 youth a meal through Youth For Christ
 - Covers the cost for Big Brothers Big Sisters to provide educational opportunities to children so they be more prepared for school
 - Provides ten survivors of domestic abuse with the fee to seek a better life so they can get an apartment

Your donation supports programs and services in Plymouth County
