

United Way of Siouxland Campaign Raises Over $3.2 Million

United Way of Siouxland's 2021-2022 Campaign Chairs announced the annual campaign raised $3,215,000 with the help of thousands of supporters.

"It has been an honor for us to serve as the 2021-2022 Campaign Chairs for United Way of Siouxland during their 100th anniversary," said Chad Jensen, Kellee Kriese, and Paul Connor, Tyson Fresh Meats. "In the last 100 years, Siouxlanders have donated over $135 million to United Way of Siouxland. Because of people looking out for one another, these donations have made a monumental impact on our community."

In addition to the annual campaign, Bruce and Linda Kalin made an endowment gift of $100,000 in honor of Kalin's Indoor Comfort 100-year anniversary. By placing this gift with the Siouxland Community Foundation it will support the needs of others for many, many years to come.

Thanks to Corporate Champions, 100 % of contributions made stay in Siouxland to support local programs in initiatives.

"This year we asked for everyone to 'Get on the Bus.' We asked for people to help us drive the change toward a brighter future," said Heather Hennings, UWS President. "We are so thankful for the generosity of the individuals and businesses who support our community."

Tyson Fresh Meats campaign surpasses $500,000 raised

In 2021, Tyson Fresh Meats set a new company record with $551,229 donated from their Dakota City plant employees, members of UFCW Local 222, Dakota Dunes corporate employees, and corporate donation.

SUCCESS CORNER

A senior in high school, Kira first joined Girl Scouts when she was in the first grade.

When she started, she joined First Lego League (FLL). Building robots out of Legos and electronics, she and her team competed in local and state competitions, including at Iowa State University.

Part of the competition involved presentations and working as a team, skills she learned at Girl Scouts.

Kira credits Girl Scouts and FLL in helping her make her decision to attend Iowa State University and major in Graphic Design.
